

U.S. Ambassador Soror Brown Ivy Beyond the Wall

Iselin, NJ — U.S. Ambassador, Soror Gayleatha Brown, became an Ivy Beyond the Wall on Friday, April 19, 2013. Soror Brown was a Honorary Member. Born in Matwon, W.Va., Soror Brown was a resident of Metuchen, N.J., for 37 years. Soror Brown attained her B.A. and master's degrees with honors from 2006 to 2009. She was counselor for political affairs at the U.S. embassy in Pretoria, South Africa. She served as U.S. Consul General at the American Consulate General, and as U.S. Deputy Permanent Observer to the Council of Europe in Strasbourg, France. She also served at the U.S. embassies in Harare, Zimbabwe, and Dar es Salaam, Tanzania. Soror Brown received two Department of State Superior Honors awards. Predeceased by her father, David L. Brown, and brothers, David, Darrel, and Dennis Brown, she is survived by her mother, Nellie, and her brother, Curtis Brown.